Important Pricing Information

Fixed Fees & Starting Prices

Our fixed fees apply to the services and deliverables described in each package. Prices marked "From" represent starting fees for qualifying straightforward matters.

The final fee depends on the nature, complexity and scope of the work and will be confirmed in writing before any engagement begins.

Initial Consultations

Our standard contract review and drafting packages include an initial consultation of at least 30 minutes within the package fee. The consultation is intended to help us understand your requirements, commercial objectives and priorities.

Revisions & Additional Work

The number of revision rounds included in each drafting package is stated in its description.

Additional documents, substantial changes to the agreed instructions, further revisions and negotiations may incur additional fees, which will be agreed in advance.

Multiple Documents & Bespoke Projects

Standard packages generally cover one agreement unless otherwise stated.

For multiple agreements, complex matters or broader commercial projects, we provide tailored quotations. Combined project pricing may be available where appropriate.

Information & Documentation

Clients are responsible for providing accurate and complete instructions and relevant documentation. Certain services, including privacy and cookie documentation, may require additional information about business operations, data processing activities and third-party technologies.

Client Acceptance

All services are subject to an initial assessment, conflict-of-interest checks, any applicable identity verification or AML/KYC requirements, and confirmation that the proposed work falls within the scope of services we can provide.

Submitting an enquiry or requesting a quotation does not create a client engagement or oblige FB Legal Consultancy Ltd to accept the work.

VAT

FB Legal Consultancy Ltd is not currently VAT registered. No VAT is charged on the advertised fees.

Prices may change. The applicable fee will be confirmed in writing before engagement.
